

I am four-square AGAINST media ownership concentration.
Cosolidation has already gone too far. A further reduction in the number of independent radio and TV stations and local newspapers poses a major threat to our democracy.